

Fried Turkeys

I have been blessed to have had a handful of relatives live to be in their 90's. But that always caused problems during the holidays, as Mama was always worried about how spicy hot I was going to make the turkey. So we offer three types:

Traditional Cajun – Marinated and injected with a citrus/wine base with pepper, garlic, onion juice, and a dash of clove – a flavorful but not eye watering bird – Just say Cajun.

Hawaiian – Our own concoction with a pineapple- teriyaki base with wasabi and garlic – Keeps the kids and Grandma Happy – Just Say Hawaiian.

Turbo Cajun – Marinade similar to our Traditional Cajun but a Habanero kick. Just ask for the Turbo Bird.

Small – 10/12 lbs - $45

Large - 18/20 lbs - $69

TUR-DUC-HEN

If you have never had a Tur-Duc-Hen, now is the time to order one. Imagine layers of spicy boudan dressing, a whole boneless chicken, two savory duck breasts, homemade cornbread dressing and Cajun turkey. Roast for 5 hours, cut it down the middle, then in slices and look at all the moist, flavorful layers of scrumptious eating. Makes an incredible presentation. Available to be shipped anywhere in the US. Due to the fact that Tur-Duc-Hens are best served just out of the oven, we only provide them fresh or flash frozen on holidays with you cooking it yourself. Ready to eat is available for dinner parties and non-holidays. Tur-Duc-Hens are great for New Year's Open Houses and Super Bowl Parties. $95. Try it with our spicy crawfish stuffing $105
Awesome with Ravenswood Merlot

Black Eyed Pea Tamales

Everyones has heard about eating collard greens or cabbage for good fortune on the New Year's Day as the "GREEN" represents our green – The Benjamins, Money, Dinero. For those of you not lucky enough to have been raised in the South, you may not even know that you need to Cover You're Luck and eat Black Eyed Peas on New Years. Thus we take cabbage, add Black Eyed Peas for luck, toss in a little ham for good taste, add a slight hint of jalapenos (maybe to spice up your love life) and combine all in fresh masa to make our Famous Black-Eyed Pea Tamales – eat a few and you will be dancing to the bank in a spiffy sports car with the companion of your dreams on your arm. And if you believe that, we have some ocean front property in Arizona to tell you about – oh well they do taste great and we are sure they will bring you happiness. New – Also available vegetarian BEP tamales! Available During December Only.
